Orange Memorial Hospital School of Nursing, "The White Cap 1971-72" (1972). Text Materials of Central Florida. 58.

1971-72 WHITE CAP

Three years have happened . . . all too quickly. Or was it? Time holds answers. Good years, best years, trying years, formative years. Trying times, hard times. Endlessly repeating accomplishments, in a constructive time. Failures? Some . . . still to come. The purpose . . . the start . . . the end . . .

Life in its entirety has become confused, absorbed in its own web of involvements. We give our all and satisfaction is complete. We become exhausted in our efforts.

What walkway are we passing through
 . . . Is this some sort of special thing?
 Or does it happen everyday . . . Once, twice, a thousand times . . . It's surely just a stopping point in time.

We came to OMH in search of a dream
 . . . to seek knowledge . . . to make friends . . . to form beliefs . . . to build character . . . to find spiritual meaning
 . . . to make this world a better place to live . . . For ourselves and our fellow man.

We have reached the beginning of the end

With what do you concern yourself, young girl
 With what do you concern yourself, young girl
 With the need for comfort in so many eyes
 Find the pale of the moon in the midnight skies
 The birth of a man and the death he dies
 And love —
 And love —

Tell me why are you crying now, young girl
 Tell me why are you crying now, young girl
 I cry for the pain of a heart that's torn
 And the tears of a woman when her child is born
 The song of the lark in the early morn
 And love —
 And love —

Tell me what are you living for, young girl
 Tell me what are you living for, young girl
 To bring a smile to my fellow man
 For the Lord who leads me by the hand
 For joy after sorrow
 And a golden tomorrow
 And love —
 And love —
 And love.

When I falter, give me courage.
 When I tire, renew my strength.
 When I weaken because I'm human,
 Inspire me on to greater length.
 If doctors and patients become demanding,
 and days are too short for all my duty,
 Help me remember I choose to serve,
 to do so with grace and spiritual beauty.
 In humility Lord, I labor long hours—
 and though I sometimes may fret;
 My mission is mercy—abide with me,
 that I may never forget.

I heard God today.

He said, You are complete in Christ. For you have everything when you have Christ, and you are filled up with God through union with Christ. He is the highest ruler, with authority over every other power.

Lovingly follow the truth at all times—speaking truly, dealing truly, living truly—and so become more and more in every way like Christ who is the Head of His body, the church. Under His direction, the whole body is fitted together perfectly, and each part in its own special way helps the other parts, so that the whole body is healthy and growing and full of love.

Jesus Christ said, My prayer for all of them is that they will be of one heart and mind, just as You and I are, Father.

And we were one — God and I.

Then I knew my world,
I knew myself,
and I knew my friend,
for I know my God.
And we were one.

A rough night in Jericho ...

We are not afraid of tomorrow.

Better than UltraBrite for whiter teeth

No, Quinton, Linda isn't here right now ...

What do you mean, this isn't my car?

All behavior is ...

Togetherness

Beauty at it's best

You call that singing?

Please, Deb, put your arm down

Duh, what's up Doc?

All strung up

When it rains, it pours.

And I see Betty, Diane, Susie, Barbara ...

AUGHHHHHHHHHHHH

I said bandana not banana!

Sexy?

Who says dress up is for little girls?

OH! ! I thought you said UP the stairs.

Caught unaware!

When you gotta go, you gotta go!

For we have seen Yesterday...

A night to remember . . .

You're telling me it's Monday morning?

Two emergency deliveries, twins, and four in active labor and you ask if I can check you off on peri lights?

I don't care if he went swimming in the lake—ALL behavior is meaningful!

surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story. Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let not this blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is perennial as the grass. Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams; it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy.

Like I was saying, now that we're all here, we really ought to get to know each other better. The need to share the real you with someone, you know? Hey, can you hear me? Are you even listening? Is anybody listening?

PARTING THOUGHTS

Long before there was man,
there was nature.
But whether nature can survive now depends on us.
For if we don't consider the future, there may be no future.

The future is in our hands.
We can make it whatever we want.
So, look within yourself
to see yourself, to discover yourself.
But be ye not afraid of what you may find.
For it is from within that we find our real self.

DEDICATION

Orange Memorial Hospital School of Nursing. A special place we shall all remember. It has been our home for three long years, yet the time has passed so quickly for each of us. It is more than an institution to us — it is our beginning, it is our end. It has given us knowledge, help, and experience. Through the years as you have grown, we have grown with you. So, it is to you OMH School of Nursing, we dedicate the 1972 WHITE CAP. With it carries our love and undying faithfulness, never to be forgotten.

At the End of a Nurse's Day

Seven o'clock! And the nurse's work
Was done for another day;
She heaved a sort of tired sigh,
And put the charts away;

Then sat for a moment and bowed her head
Over the little white desk;
"I wonder," she said to herself, "After all,
Am I really doing my best?"

"Perhaps I could have begun the day
With a brighter, cheerier smile,
And answered the bells with a 'right away,'
Instead of an 'after a while,'

"And I might have listened with sweeter grace,
To the story of 3's woes;
She may be suffering more, perhaps
More than anyone knows.

"And I might have refrained from that halfway frown,
(Although I was busy then)
When that frail little body with sad blue eyes,
Kept ringing again and again.

"And I might have spoken a kindlier word,
To the heart of that restless boy,
And stopped a moment to help him find
The missing part of his toy.

"Or perhaps the patient in 18 A,
Just needed a gentler touch;
There are lots of things that I might have done,
And it wouldn't have taken much."

She sighed again, and brushed a tear;
Then whispered, praying low,
"O God, how can you accept this day,
When it has been lacking so?"

And God looked down—He heard that sigh,
And saw that shining tear,
So sent His Angel Messenger,
To whisper in her ear:—

"Perhaps you could have done better to-day,
But, ah, the Omnipotent One,
Seeing your faults, doesn't forget
The beautiful things you've done.

"He knows, little nurse, that you love your work,
In this Big House of Sorrow,
So gladly forgives the lack of to-day,
For you will do better tomorrow."

And the nurse looked up with the tenderest smile,
"Tomorrow I'll make it right"
Then added a note in the order book
"Be good to them to-night."

Alice Hansche Mortenson, R.N.

Our year has finally come to a close. With it, marks the end of just another year, with one last year to bear the torch of honor for OMH. With the end in sight, we ponder over our accomplishments, our failures, our friends. It has never been easy but our goal is well worth the striving. This yearbook is but a tribute to Orange Memorial School of Nursing. With it goes blood, sweat, and tears. To OMH our beginning, our end.
